

Reading John F. Kennedy and some of his quotes, here is one that is so relevant to today, its ominous:-

" Never Before has Man, had Such a Capacity to control his own environment, to end thirst and hunger, to conquer poverty and disease, to banish illiteracy and massive human misery....We have the power to make this best generation of mankind in the history of the world, or make it our last".

JFK was murdered, like so many others that had something relevant and challenging to say. Those who are still bringing misery of spirit, are humanly impoverished, and emotionally illiterate will keep fighting to their dying breath to ensure that the "power to make this the best generation of human kind" does NOT occur.

Borrowing from Emma's Watson's speech:

IF NOT ME, WHO? IF NOT NOW, WHEN?

How many of us are prepared to stand up and be counted? To make this the BEST GENERATION of human history.

I AM. Are you?
