

Creative ConsulTeam
Shifts in Minds for Shifts in Action

Testimonial April 2015

"I have always had a problem working with consultants!

This is why I really appreciate collaborating with Creative ConsulTeam, or, should I say, with Aline & Jean-Louis.

I like the fact that their approach is truly personal and always customized. Thanks to that approach, a dynamic of cooperation immediately sets in from the very start of any project.

Aline & Jean-Louis adapt to the tempo of the group and of the individuals in the group. Always relaxed, full of humor and provocative, they apply a structured, professional and rigorous methodology. They manage to rapidly create a "space" at the heart of which any team can totally "own" their subject, discover new methods to think about it, feel free to generate its own solutions et draw conclusions that are naturally "bought" and applied.

The various projects I have successfully conducted with them over the past years have all delivered concrete and durable results.

But, more than successful outcomes, these projects have been, thanks to them, the start of new adventures for the companies concerned, deeply transformed by a genuine and long-lasting Change of Culture".
